

This is the entry point for the Auction Site under strict Covid-19 Directions

Entry to the Auction Site is limited to those interested in bidding for this property.

No more than 50* persons are permitted on the site at any one time.

Persons entering the Auction Site will be asked to:

- provide their name and contact information upon entry
- observe social distancing guidelines
- wear a face mask as instructed by the Agency representatives
- obey instructions from the Agency representatives
- leave the property if requested to do so by the Agency representatives

Please do not enter if:

You are unwell or exhibiting symptoms of Covid-19

No more space or property at capacity?

Please contact the Estate Agent or their representative, you may need to use the online auction option, if available.

Under the Covid-19 Directions you must not congregate in the street.

Not including the agent and their representative/s. The 50-person limit may be reduced if social distancing measures cannot be met.*